

Volunteer Checking:

When deploying club volunteers, it is important to make investigations to determine if there are any risks associated with their working with young people or adults at risk.

This simple chart show what checks are required.

